With over 25 years immersed in the art of design and remodeling, Carol brings a wealth of award-winning experience to every project she touches—residential and commercial alike. From an early age, surrounded by a family deeply rooted in construction, remodeling, and the lumber industries, Carol developed an innate understanding of the building process.

Her journey has taken her across continents: living in Italy for three years refined her appreciation for artisan craftsmanship, European architecture, and the intricate details that set exceptional design apart. Certified in Chief Architect Kitchen & Bath Design and Kitchen Cabinetry Design (KCD) 3D Cabinet Design, Carol fuses technical expertise with creative vision to craft spaces that are both breathtaking and highly functional.

Beyond her design talent, Carol's executive-level project management experience with top American companies—and her own corporation—ensures that her projects are executed with precision, care, and an unwavering commitment to quality. Her hands-on knowledge of construction management allows her to bridge the gap between vision and reality seamlessly.

Carol believes that design is more than creating beautiful spaces; it's about transforming how people live, work, and connect. Every decision she makes honors the unique story and goals of her clients, delivering spaces that inspire and endure.
