"From start to finish, Marrokal has a very organized process and goes over timelines and expectations up front. (Drew out a diagram of the process when we first met which was helpful). They were the only company we met with who made things crystal clear. They do wonderful work and are genuinely nice people. They were very responsive to concerns. Our house is beautiful! Pat was absolutely wonderful! Very knowledgeable and professional."

"I have used Marrokal for two other jobs and found their work exceptional, so there was no other choice when it came to my project. Some days were very hectic, but I was kept up-to-date with what was happening, and I was listened to if I had a concern."
